

Family Violence is an abuse of human rights

The Attorney General's Department has provided funding for the Northern Community Legal Service to provide a Family Law and Family Violence Programme in the northern suburbs of Adelaide.

We can provide to eligible residents:

- ◆ information;
- ◆ advice; and
- ◆ representation.

Community Legal Education session can be provided or arranged on request.

All our services are FREE of charge to the community.

As funds are limited, all donations are gratefully accepted.

Donations over $2 are tax deductible
A receipt will be given.

Contact us for assistance and interpreters are available.

Northern Community
Legal Service

FAMILY LAW AND FAMILY VIOLENCE SERVICE

*Family Violence Hurts
Everyone*

Northern Community Legal Service Inc.

26 John St, Salisbury SA 5108

Phone: (08) 8281 6911

Country callers: 1300 558 555

Fax: 8281 6605

PO Box 697 Salisbury SA 5108

NCLS Family Law and Family Violence Service

Family violence includes:

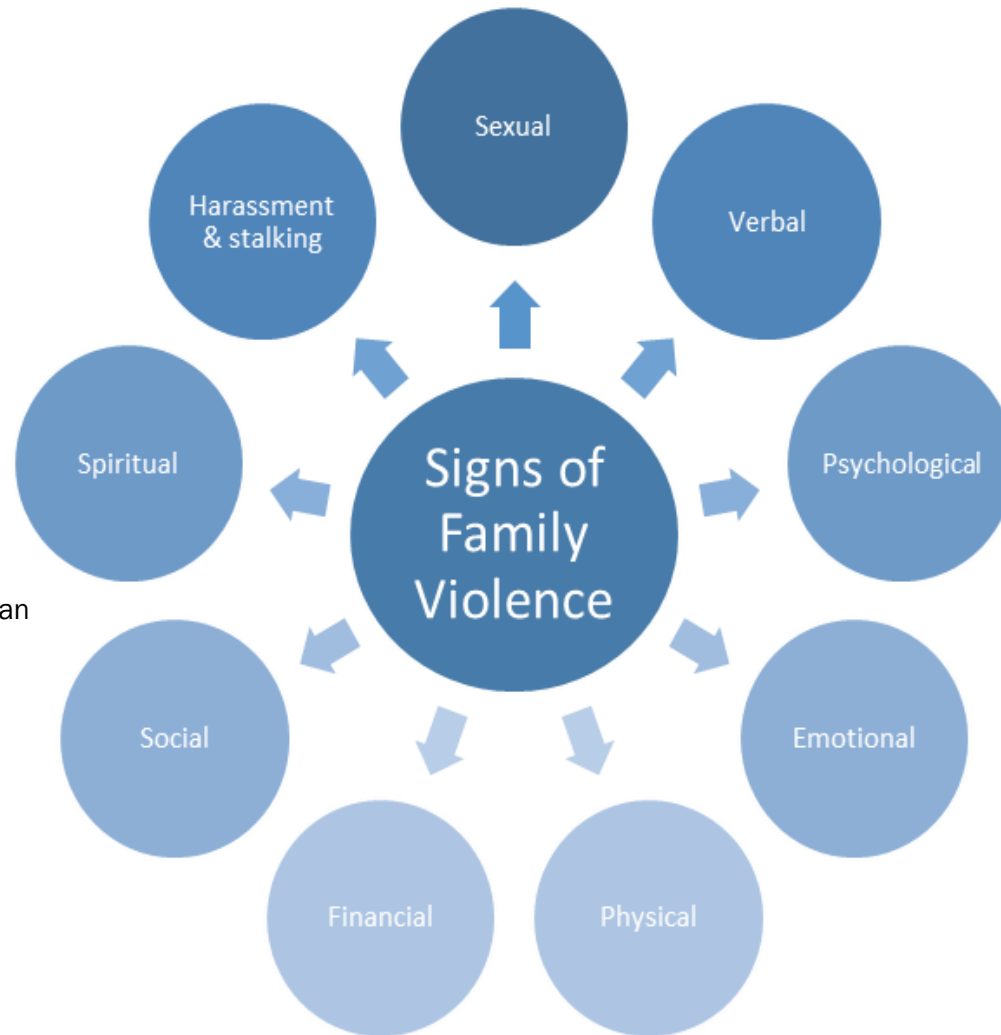

- ◆ child abuse;
- ◆ partner abuse; and
- ◆ elder abuse.

Family violence affects everyone.

Family violence is a diverse issue and can affect:

- ◆ men;
- ◆ women;
- ◆ elderly people;
- ◆ children;
- ◆ same-sex families; and
- ◆ people from any cultural backgrounds.

Our lawyers are diverse, aware and sensitive to all people.

NCLS can assist you if:

- ◆ you are the victim of family violence;
- ◆ you have been falsely accused of family violence;
- ◆ you suspect elder abuse to someone you know;
- ◆ you are being restricted access to your children;
- ◆ your ex-partner is using your children for financial gain;
- ◆ you have recently left a violent relationship and need to protect your children;
- ◆ you or your ex-partner has commenced family law or intervention order proceedings;
- ◆ and many more.

Please arrange a free appointment with us to speak about any of the above or more.