

FAMILY VIOLENCE IS AN ABUSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS

The Attorney General's Department has provided funding for the Northern Community Legal Service to provide a Family Law and Family Violence Programme in the northern suburbs of Adelaide.

We can provide to eligible residents:

- information;
- advice; and
- representation.

Community Legal Education session can be provided or arranged on request.

All our services are free of charge to the community.

As funds are limited, all donations are gratefully accepted. Donations over $2 are tax deductible and a receipt will be given.

Contact us for assistance and interpreters are available.

✓ What is a CLC?

Community Legal Centres (CLC) are independent non-profit organisations owned and operated by the local community target to provide access to justice.

CLC's primarily target their services to people who are not eligible for legal aid and who are unable to afford the services of a private lawyer. Anyone living or working in the northern suburbs is entitled to free legal advice

✓ What are the costs?

All legal advice is provided free of charge to the community.
